1874: Peter Nightingale died on 7 October 1874 at Lady Hill, Worsley, aged 60 years. His will, with two codicils, was proved on 26 November 1874 and his effects (under £16,000) were left to his wife, Emily. He was buried at St. Mark's on 12 October 1874.

In the vault are buried:

Peter Nightingale, 14 October 1874, in his 61st year;
Emily, his wife, 20 March 1876, in her 49th year;
Katherine, their daughter, 18 April 1910, aged 56;
Emily, their daughter, 7 May 1857, in her 24th year;
John, their son, 14 September 1900, aged 56;
William, their son, 20 July 1947, aged 80;
and Peter, their eldest son, 1 April 1916 (aged 62-Ed.).

Peter has the distinction of being one of the first Church Wardens of Worsley, and served from 1851 to 1873.

Emily died on 20 March 1876 at Springfield House, Chichester. She was formerly of Lady Hill, Worsley. Her will was proved by Peter, her son, and the Rev. Francis John Wrottesley, also of Chichester, and former curate of St. Mark's. She was buried at St. Mark's on 24 March 1876.
